2023 Work and Milestones in Surveys, Safety and Security to Build Quality of Life

BY JFS CEO RUTH
HAMPTON OLKON,
MSW, MPH

I'm delighted to present the JFS
2023 annual report.
With the relentless
work of the

dedicated JFS staff and unwavering support from our Board of Directors, we have, once again, managed to bring our mission to life through our critical human services.

Throughout 2023, we continued to survey clients in each of our programs to understand the outcome or impact our service had on their life and to identify things we can do better. We will finish that work in 2024 and will present a comprehensive report on the entire project, but here are a few highlights:

- 98% of survey respondents agreed that JFS helped them with the issues that initially brought them to us.
- 100% of respondents agreed that they would recommend JFS counseling to others.

- 78% of respondents to our Grief Support Group survey agreed that they felt a sense of community while participating and would recommend the Group to others.
- 100% of respondents to our Holocaust Survivor Services survey agreed that they had the support needed to remain in their home, had an increased sense of independence and greater knowledge of local resources, felt an increased sense of wellbeing, and would recommend the program to others.

- 100% of respondents to our Kosher Meals on Wheels survey agreed that the meals were easy to choose and delivered on schedule.

These surveys also helped us find meaningful ways to make improvements.
Our Holocaust Survivor Services respondents told us they need more financial assistance. As a result, the fund-a-need portion of our annual fundraiser "Celebration of Service" on May 19 will be dedicated to raising money for programs that support these JFS clients.

We also identified community need for affordable transportation. Through a group of dedicated volunteers, we offer free rides to people who cannot drive or have limited access to transportation.
"The ability to get to things like haircuts, doctor appointments or grocery shopping is taken for granted by many of us," said JFS Volunteer Coordinator Anne Myers. "JFS supports those who cannot accomplish tasks that support their health and social needs, enhance their quality of life, and allow them to remain safely in their homes."

In 2023, we exceeded our grant funding goal by nearly eight percent, reaching $225,000 in revenue for the agency.
In the fall, we received a call from the daughters of former long-tenured JFS employee Anita Dinerstein who passed away in the spring, telling us they wanted to establish an endowment in their parents name. Their $500,000 endowment will provide perpetual funding for JFS programs and operations.

2023 Work and Milestones in Surveys, Safety and Security to Build Quality of Life CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

We continued and strengthened our commitment to embedding the advancement of diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) into the infrastructure and planning of our organization. The most important 2024 goal of our new human resources generalist is to develop an objective process for finding, hiring and retaining people of different cultures and backgrounds. All staff are required to complete assigned DEI courses, while managers and supervisors are required to complete additional training specific to managing direct reports. Our staff-led DEI committee is identifying opportunities within our building to create signage and visual imagery that supports our DEI focus.

At the end of 2023, we were informed that we have been selected to receive a FEMA grant to make security enhancements to the interior and exterior of our building. With this grant, we will upgrade our cameras and motion lights around the building and improve our lobby.

We've got another busy year planned.

Make sure you stay informed by subscribing to our bi-monthly newsletter on the home page of our website at jfssp.org.

The Bruce Goodman Read in Color Little Free Library Book Pick of the Quarter

The Bruce Goodman Read in Color Little Free Library is sharing a review of The New York Times Best Seller The Personal Librarian by Marie Benedict and Victoria Christopher Murray, a remarkable novel about J.P. Morgan's personal librarian, Belle da Costa Greene, the Black American woman who was forced to hide her true identity and pass as white in order to leave a lasting legacy that enriched our nation.

In her twenties, Belle da Costa Greene is hired by J. P. Morgan to curate a collection of rare manuscripts, books and artwork for his newly built Pierpont Morgan Library. Belle becomes a fixture on the New York society scene and one of the most powerful people in the art and book world, known for her impeccable taste and shrewd negotiating for critical works as she helps build a world-class collection.

But Belle has a secret, one she must protect at all costs. She was born not Belle da Costa Greene but Belle Marion Greener. She is the daughter of Richard Greener, the first Black graduate of Harvard and a well-known advocate for equality.

The Personal Librarian tells the story of an extraordinary woman, famous for her intellect, style and wit, and shares the lengths to which she must go to preserve her carefully crafted white identity in the racist world in which she lives.

"Written by two authors, one white, one black, this book creates an authentic look at the costs of 'passing'. The book kept me intrigued throughout. Learning about a woman who took risks, carved her own path, and silenced naysayers is a gift and a must read," said JFS Community Engagement Manager Jodi Saltzman.

Share your reactions to this book by email to jsaltzman@jfssp.org with the title Book Pick.

Largest Endowment in the History of JFS Made in 2023

A $500,000 donation was made to JFS to establish the Anita and Jim Dinerstein Endowment to support ongoing operations. The gift was made by Rachel Geballe and Ellen Werlin of New York City in honor of their parents, Anita and Jim. Investments stemming from this gift will have a direct and positive impact by providing perpetual funding for JFS programs and operations.

"Building and nurturing JFS was a life's work for our mother, Anita, with the wholehearted support of our father, Jim. His work in supporting housing and other resources for those in need is etched across the physical space of the city and state. We can think of no greater legacy than to honor their memories by uplifting and honoring those who follow in their footsteps, building a stronger and more compassionate St. Paul Jewish community," said the daughters.

With this gift, the JFS Community Service Award, presented each year at the agency's annual fundraiser to honor extraordinary volunteer and philanthropic effort in support of JFS, will be renamed the Anita and Jim

Dinerstein
Community Service Award.

Anita Dinerstein was a long-time staff member and leader at JFS, retiring as assistant director in 2005. She then generously contributed another seven years at JFS as a volunteer for the financial assistance and community resources programs.
